SAYS BREWERIES GAVE $1,000,000 TO KEEP TEXAS WET

Letter Read in Court Declares That Amount Was Spent Since 1890.

$100,000 FROM BUSCH

Case of Six Breweries Goes on Despite Their Plea of Guilty.

Special to the Post-Dispatch, SULPHUR SPRINGS, Tex., Jan. 26.—The name of the late Adolphus Busch of St. Louis again was brought into the trial yesterday of six Texas breweries charged with violation of the anti-trust laws. Busch's name was mentioned in a letter written by Otto Wahrmond of the San Antonio Brewing Co. to B. Adone, president of the Texas Brewers' Association, on March 13, 1911, previous to the State prohibition election in that year.

Wahrmond declared Adolphus Busch had given $100,000 to the campaign fund. Wahrmond also said virtually all the State newspapers were with the brewery interests and most of the Texas Congressmen as well as the State administration were for the breweries.

Spent $1,000,000. In another letter Adone wrote to a brewer friend that $1,000,000 had been spent at prohibition elections in Texas since 1890. The letter concluded by saying that if breweries had not fought in county local option elections, 95 per cent of the State would have been "dry" five years ago. Adone wrote bitterly of the waste of money, declaring that 90 per cent of campaign funds were wasted.

The taking of evidence against the breweries is continuing over the protest of the defendants, who have already pleaded guilty, accepted charter forfeitures and agreed to penalties amounting to nearly $300,000. The Dallas Brewing Co. refused to plead guilty and its case will come up in February.

Reading of letters and reports into the record has been sanctioned by a ruling of Judge Pierson that such matter could be introduced by the State and that the part not admissible could be eliminated later. This arrangement was made to hasten court procedure.

Attorney E. R. Campbell of Houston made the point that the only letters admissible to record were those offered as testimony and that "under no rule of fairness or of law" would it be proper to introduce hundreds of letters and documents taken by the Attorney-General from the defendant's files and not read in court.

Judge Pierson held that the record should be clear and definite and if such matter was not introduced it would not be fair to the public.

The State introduced numerous letters and extracts of letters and documents which it asserted would tend to uphold its allegation that the defendants paid the poll taxes of many persons throughout the State in 1904, so that they might vote at the succeeding election.

Objections by Defense. The defense objected to introduction of such letters on the ground that they were written before the passing of the law of 1905 making it a penal offense to pay poll taxes for persons qualified to vote.

In reply Attorney-General Looney declared that the law always had forbidden corporations to use their assets for any other purpose than that granted in their charters.

Judge William Pierson, presiding, overruled the objection. A letter introduced dated Jan. 1, 1906, supposed to have been written by a brewery agent to the Texas Brewing Co. of Fort Worth, said that assistance should be given to pay poll taxes in Bunk County, asserting that $10 spent in this way would do more good than $100 spent at the elections.

BUSHEL POTATOES HERE $1.04, IN BERLIN 60 CENTS

New Maximum Price for Commodity Is Fixed by the German Government.

BERLIN, via London, Jan. 26.—At a meeting of the National Potato Growers and Dealers' Association it was announced that the Government had agreed to raise the maximum price of potatoes to 4 marks (91) a hundredweight. The present price is 2 marks and 75 pfennigs per hundredweight.

Potatoes in St. Louis are selling, in carload lots, according to today's quotations, at from 98 cents to $1.04 per bushel. The quality bringing $1.04 here is the same for which producers in Germany are permitted to ask a cent a pound there being 60 pounds of potatoes to a bushel.

Potatoes sell here at retail at from $1.35 to $1.40 for the best quality, whereas in Germany, allowing for the usual intermediary profits, they probably will bring under the new wholesale scale of prices from 85 to 95 cents.

"POETIC JUSTICE," SAYS COURT OF EMBEZZLEMENT DISMISSAL

It Appears That Firm in Attempting to Beat City Out of $37 Has Lost $100 Judge Grimm Declares.

Circuit Judge Grimm, today, in dismissing, upon motion of the State, the case against Robert H. Benzel of 204 1/2 St. Vincent avenue, charged with embezzlement when a deputy collector in the water rates office, said it appeared to be a case of "poetic justice."

He explained that the money Benzel was charged with having embezzled was a check for $150 given by the A. Heisel Laundry Co. to a sister of Benzel to pay a water bill of $187. "It appears," said Judge Grimm, "that the laundry was attempting to beat the city out of $37 of its water bill, has itself lost $150.

Assistant Circuit Attorney McCullen, asking for the dismissal, said Benzel's sister, who was employed by a cousin of Alonzo H. Heisel, had been asked if she could not get a reduction in Heisel's water bill through her brother. Her testimony, McCullen said, was that she gave the check to Frank White, another employe of the water office, who is under indictment, but who has not been arrested. There was no proof that Benzel ever got the check, he said.

TOO BUSY TO BE ARRESTED, SPEEDER SURRENDERS LATER

Motor Cycle Policeman Who Stopped Sidney T. Bixby Allows Him to Attend a Meeting.

Sidney T. Bixby, 40 years old, son of W. K. Bixby of King's highway and Lindell boulevard, drove up to the Laclede Avenue Police Station last night and surrendered on a charge of speeding.

The Desk Sergeant was perplexed until Bixby told him he had been stopped by a motor cycle policeman earlier in the evening.

"I was on my way to the St. Louis Club to attend a meeting when the patrolman told me that I was driving at a rate of 28 miles an hour," he said. "I told them I was too busy to be arrested and promised to surrender at the station later. They permitted me to continue my journey."

Bixby signed a bond for his appearance in court.

Bixby today told Judge Hogan in court that he thought he might have been speeding, as he was in a hurry to get to the meeting. He was fined $5 and costs.

OPERATES WITH POCKETKNIFE TWO SPOONS, BIT OF RUBBER

Surgeon Called to Mountain Home, Saves Woman's Life by Emergency Treatment.

ELKINS, W. Va., Jan. 26.—With two tin teaspoons, a pocket knife and a piece of rubber tubing as his instruments, Dr. H. W. Daniel of the Elkins Hospital performed an operation on a woman apparently dying of "phthisis" and saved her life. It was learned today. Called to the mountain home of Mrs. Thurman Cokerly, the doctor found the woman unconscious.

Having no surgical instruments with him and realizing that death was near, he made an incision in the woman's windpipe with his knife, and using the teaspoons bent double as retractors, he inserted the rubber tube. Respiration was restored and within a few hours the patient regained consciousness. It is said today that she probably will recover.

BREAKFAST BUT NO RECEPTION FOR PRESIDENT HERE

Part of Program of Business Men's League Canceled by Secretary Tumulty.

SECOND SPEECH UNLIKELY

President of Wilson Club Protests Against Executive Being Heard by "Chosen Few."

President Wilson does not wish to appear at a public reception at the time of his visit to St. Louis, on the morning of Thursday, Feb. 3. This was made known in a telegram from Secretary Tumulty, received this morning by James E. Smith, head of the Business Men's League committee in charge of receiving the President.

This leaves the breakfast, in the Planters Hotel, to be attended by some 600 members of the league, as the only scheduled appearance of the President during his stay in St. Louis. He will make a prepared speech at this breakfast. An attempt is being made by Democratic leaders to arrange for a second speech, in some large downtown hall or theater, if there is not time to go to the Coliseum. Nothing has been done as to this plan by Smith's committee.

Secretary Tumulty's telegram to Smith said: "Please make no arrangements for a reception, as reception of every kind have been eliminated at all cities to be visited by the President. Smith explained to a Post-Dispatch reporter the course which had been followed in making the arrangements thus far, and why the committee had not in the last two days, tried to arrange for a public address by the President. Smith called attention to the fact that the President had asked that he be not disturbed in his car at Union Station until 9 a. m. As he leaves for the east at 1 p. m., the time of his stay downtown will not be much more than 10 hours, and with the speech and the delays and interferences which occur at such times, Smith believes the breakfast will take up a large part of that time.

Smith said that last Friday, before the time schedule of the President's stay here had been received and when it was hoped that he could spend all day here, he sent Secretary Tumulty a telegram asking for suggestions for arrangements, from which the President might choose. He suggested that the President might speak at a banquet at night, to business men, but that he might address 10,000 to 12,000 persons in the Coliseum, or that he might speak at the Odeon, where 2000 could be accommodated, and where everyone in the building could be sure of hearing. He suggested that there might be a midday luncheon and a public address at night.

Hotel Breakfast Plan Approved. The next day he was notified in a telegram that the President would be here in the morning only. He wired, suggesting the Planters Hotel breakfast, and got an answer accepting this arrangement. He said he took this to mean that the other plans, suggested in his letter, were not accepted.

Smith later sent a telegram proposing a reception after the breakfast, and the reply to this letter was Tumulty's plan for a reception be dropped.

Smith said he was informed, when in Washington recently, that President Wilson said he would never speak in the St. Louis Coliseum again. He spoke there late in the 1912 campaign, and because of his hoarseness and of the continuous entry of marching clubs during his speech, he was unable to make himself heard by any except those near the platform. This gave him an unfavorable impression of the Coliseum as a speaking place.

Breckinridge Long, president of the Wilson Club, a political organization, sent telegrams to Speaker Clark and Senator Stone in Washington yesterday afternoon, complaining of the plans announced by the Business Men's League. The Planters dining room will not accommodate.

STATE RESTS ITS CASE; MRS. MOHR TO GO ON STAND

Defense in Murder Trial Loses Motion for Dismissal; Outlines Plans.

TELLS OF "CONFESSIONS"

Police Captain Says Negroes Admitted Shooting Doctor of Own Volition.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 26.—The State rested today in its trial of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr and two negroes, Cecil Brown and Henry Spellman, charged with the murder of the woman's husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, Aug. 31 last. By the testimony of more than 50 witnesses, the prosecution attempted to prove the negroes shot the physician at the instigation of Mrs. Mohr.

After the State rested, Arthur Cushing moved that the indictment against Mrs. Mohr be dismissed because it was at variance with the evidence. The motion was denied.

Counsel stated that Mrs. Mohr would go on the stand in her own defense. Cushing, outlining the defense for Mrs. Mohr, said: "The evidence will show that Dr. Mohr was a faithless and cruel husband and a worthless citizen, perhaps. We are not going to attempt to work the so-called 'unwritten law'."

Cushing declared there was a dispute over property and that Mrs. Mohr was desirous of regaining property she had been coerced into giving to the doctor in May, 1913. He added: "Mrs. Mohr will go on the stand and tell you of these things."

"We will show you that Mrs. Mohr was uneasy of mind because she had an injunction to prevent the doctor from dissipating his property or giving it to Miss Burger."

"It is true that Mrs. Mohr was jealous of her husband. She loved him in spite of long and untold abuse, but she hoped for a reconciliation some day and never had any murder in her mind against him. Dr. Mohr was a man of charming personality and was kind and generous when he wanted to be. Mrs. Mohr wished to preserve his life, not destroy it."

Says Doctor Beat Wife. The attorney said that the doctor married the defendant in Brooklyn on June 16, 1903, and in the spring of 1906 he gave her a terrible beating. He added: "He told her to go out of the house, telling her she was not his wife; that she could not prove a marriage as there was no record of the ceremony and that the man who had performed it was dead. There was a violent quarrel, and the doctor and Mrs. Mohr went to Lynn, where a marriage ceremony was performed again by a Justice of the Peace. Upon their return to Providence Dr. Mohr became unfaithful and associated with other women, including Miss Emily Burger."

A letter written by Mohr to his wife in which he threatened to kill her if she appeared at his Providence home, would be put in evidence, declared Cushing. "We will show you," he said, "that Mrs. Mohr appealed to Mr. Rooks to stop his sister-in-law, Miss Burger, from going around with the doctor. Mrs. Mohr did write a threatening card, but she was merely trying to frighten Miss Burger."

Admitting that it was true that Mrs. Mohr had dealt with some servants, the lawyer said this was only for the purpose of obtaining information with which to prepare for the divorce hearing if it were ever held.

Police Captain on Stand. Capt. George H. Monahan of the Providence police testified he arrested Brown and that Chief O'Neal told the prisoner he did not have to talk, but that if he talked to tell the truth. Brown told Chief O'Neal, the witness said, that he had been to Riverside visiting a family named Doherty about 9 o'clock on the night of the murder. Doherty had testified that Brown called at his house about 9:35 that night.

Capt. Monahan corroborated the testimony of preceding witnesses relative to the alleged confession of the negroes. Brown and Spellman repeated their story, he said, when Mrs. Mohr was brought in.

"I told them there were newspapers men present and that they could talk to them if they desired," Monahan continued. "The reporters wanted to know the motive Mrs. Mohr had for wishing her husband killed and Brown replied that she wanted to get control of the doctor's property. Brown declared that Mrs. Mohr had been after them for three months to do the job."

Court Petition as Evidence. Testimony was presented yesterday showing that on the day Dr. Mohr died his widow petitioned the Municipal Court to have herself appointed custodian of his property. She filed at the same time a petition to be named administratrix.

The prosecution submitted this evidence in support of its theory that Mrs. Mohr's motive for the alleged instigation of the murder partly was her desire to gain control of her husband's property. To offset any impression this testimony might make, the defense, in cross-examination of Clifford D. Rogers, Clerk of the Probate Court, drew from him the statement that it was customary to file petitions for guardianship immediately to protect the property.

HENRY AMES IS FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL BATHTUB

Retired Capitalist Had Been Ill With Grip, but Showed Improvement.

Henry Ames, 66 years old, a retired capitalist, died suddenly in a bathtub in his suite at the Windermere Hotel, Delmar boulevard and Clara avenue, this morning. A physician told death was caused by heart disease.

He had been ill with grip for three days but today he felt so much better that he told his wife he intended to resume his morning bath. When a porter called with the newspapers at 8 o'clock the door was ajar and the bathroom was found with the door ajar and the bathroom was found with the door ajar.

Ames was a grandson of Nathan Ames, who came to St. Louis in 1841 and established a pork packing business that made a fortune for the family during the Civil War. Nathan Ames had two sons, Henry and Edgar, and the present members of the Ames family in St. Louis are their descendants.

Ames had been ill with pneumonia Jan. 17 last, at his home, 3824 Lindell boulevard. Ames is survived by his widow, who was related to three Missouri Governors and by his son, Henry Ames III, 12 years old, a Smith Academy student. The family was in Europe when the war started.

Mrs. Ames, before her marriage, was Jeanie Marmorek of New York. Mr. Her grandfather, M. M. Marmorek, was Governor in 1840. The Ames home is at Webster Groves, but in the winter the family lived in St. Louis hotels. Ames had an office in the Security Building.

BRYAN PLANS TO JOIN FORD PEACE PARTY IN STOCKHOLM

Has Not Made Up His Mind, However, When He Will Sail for Europe.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 26.—William Jennings Bryan intends to go to Stockholm to join the Ford Permanent Peace Committee, but has not as yet made his plans or decided on the date when he will go. He let it be known here last night, but would make no other comment on the matter. He said he would remain in Florida, however, until the latter part of February, when he will leave on a speaking tour.

OWEN'S CASE HELD UP BY REFUSAL OF 2 JUDGES TO TRY IT

Grimm Sends It to Kimmel and Kimmel Sends It Back to Grimm.

A refusal of two Circuit Judges to try John B. Owen, former Collector of Water Rates and an active Republican politician, charged with the embezzlement of $383.50 of the funds of his office, has resulted in complications which have left the case resting in the clerk's office while the Judges debate what to do with it.

The case originally was assigned to Judge Grimm and was docketed for trial Jan. 14. That day Judge Grimm transferred the case to Judge Kimmel's court, according to the papers a notation disqualifying himself because of a prejudice about and unstable manner.

Judge Kimmel yesterday returned the papers to Judge Grimm's court, announcing that the rules of the court had not been complied with by Judge Grimm, who, he said, should have asked him whether he would accept the case.

Judge Kimmel told a Post-Dispatch reporter that if he had been asked to try it he would have refused. He said he would have reason to disqualify himself because Owen was active in his behalf in the campaign for Circuit Judge.

Judge Grimm refused to accept the papers when they were sent back. He said the rules of the court had nothing to do with the transfer of the case, and that he had followed the law in making the transfer.

HOUSE IN BERLIN, REPORTER FINDS HIM "VERY RESERVED"

Envoy Described "as Calm, Well Intentioned Observer With No Anti-German Prejudices."

BERLIN, via London, Jan. 26.—Col. M. House, personal representative of President Wilson, arrived in Berlin this morning from Paris. A correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger interviewed Col. House at Karlruhe and found him "very reserved" regarding the purpose of his trip.

The correspondent described him as "making the impression of a calm, well-intentioned observer without any anti-German prejudices, who deplores the world war and its horrors in moving words."

Last year the Post-Dispatch printed 6724 Male Help Wanted ads. Just 11,000 more than its nearest competitor.

KAISER SEEN AT NISH AS A "TIRED AND BROKEN MAN"

London Writer, Face to Face With War Lord, Says Hairs Is White, Former Activity Gone.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—"The truth about the Kaiser" is the title of a remarkable dispatch from the London Daily Mail's special correspondent, who saw the war-lord at close quarters at Nish on the occasion of a banquet on Jan. 24, where the Kaiser was King Ferdinand's guest. The correspondent, describing the Kaiser's appearance on his arrival at Nish, says:

"The fact is that he is a tired and broken man. His hair is white, though his mustache is still suspiciously dark. There was an absence of his old activity of gesture, quick, nervous wheeling about and unstable manner."

"The Kaiser was obviously out to make himself agreeable. He examined the medals of the Bulgarian soldiers with apparent interest, chatted with royal affability and smiled right and left. Nevertheless he is greatly aged."

"He held a handkerchief which he was perpetually using, and later at the head of the banquet, when he was asked to give a toast, he said: 'I am very tired and broken. I have no more to say.'"

"From the fact that he is a tired and broken man, it is not surprising that he is so much more of a tactician than a statesman. He is a tactician, and he is a tactician."

AUSTRIAN ADVANCE THROUGH ALBANIA ALARMS ITALIANS

Invaders Reported to Have Taken San Giovanni di Medua, 17 Miles South of Scutari—Cabinet at Rome Discusses Situation.

Durazzo, Defended by Essad Pasha, and Avlona Are Believed to Be Able to Withstand Attacks.

Fighting in Flanders Leads British Observers to Expect Great Effort on Kaiser's Birthday.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Jan. 26.—A dispatch received from Rome says the Austrians have occupied San Giovanni di Medua, a seaport in Albania, 17 miles south of Scutari.

Keen interest is manifested in political circles at Rome regarding the entire Albanian question. Baron Sonnino, the Italian Foreign Minister, had a long conference yesterday with the King, and it is understood that at the meeting of the Italian Cabinet today certain features of the Albanian question were discussed although it is not expected that definite decisions of importance will be arrived at, as the question is an international one and must be settled by agreement of the allies.

Military experts affirm that no immediate anxiety is felt for Durazzo, which is understood to be actually defended by Essad Pasha, nor for Avlona, which is believed to be safe from a sudden blow.

Bulgarian forces are said to have advanced into Central Albania and come in contact with Albanian troops and Essad Pasha, Provisional President of Albania, who is co-operating with the Italian forces. Disputes from the Albanians to Brindisi, Italy, say an advance guard of Bulgarians has been defeated near Elbasan by Essad Pasha.

A dispatch from San Giovanni di Medua to the Idea Nazionale at Rome says the Montenegrins made a determined stand on Mount Liarosch in an effort to save the city of Soutari but that the approach of a strong Albanian army forced the Serbian forces to evacuate the place and the detachment on the mountain to retreat. The women, it is stated, conducted themselves as heroically as the men, carrying on their backs during the retreat everything that was necessary to continue the struggle.

The London newspapers today emphasize the renewal of heavy fighting on the western front. They declare that the British forces in Mesopotamia suffered a severe reverse in their endeavor to reach the besieged town of Kut-el-Amara, on the Tigris River. Some 30 miles east of Kut-el-Amara, the British, in counter attack, say they drove the British back several miles and the British left on the field about 2000 dead. The Turkish losses are declared to have been comparatively slight. It was after this fight, which lasted six hours, that Gen. Ayler is declared to have requested and obtained a truce of one day in order that the dead might be buried.

The British advancing from Mustafa on the Shatt-el-Hai River, south of Kut-el-Amara toward Korna, were compelled to retreat before a Turkish attack, says the report, leaving 100 men dead.

The British reverse at the hands of the Turks, however, is somewhat offset by the Turkish losses in battles with the Russians in the neighborhood of Erzerum. A news agency dispatch from Peshawar states that apart from the casualties in actual battle, the Turks lost 10 officers and 600 men taken prisoner and also scores of machine guns and quantities of munitions captured.

An agreement in principle is said to have been reached between Great Britain and Greece in regard to supplies of coal for Greek industrial needs. Reuters Athens correspondent says the British Government has agreed to authorize exportation of coal for the use of railways and other companies in Greece, in accordance with their needs and also to meet the requirements of the Greek navy. Great Britain also agreed to place no difficulties in the way of exportation of coal from America to Greece.

Service Minister Says Fight in Albania Will Be Continued.

PARIS, Jan. 26.—The Paris correspondent of the Petit Parisien has had an interview on the island with M. Pacheco, the Service Minister, and quotes him as saying:

"The retreat of our troops from Albania is far from completed. Those who suffered most will soon be sent to places where they will be needed for reorganization and training. An

Pianist's Wife Tells of Work He Has Done for Relief of Poland.

Madame Ignace Jan Paderewski, wife of the noted pianist, in the first public speech she ever made, told members of the City Club today that her husband, since April 1, had raised $100,000 by concerts and subscriptions from personal friends for the Polish relief fund.

Madame Paderewski said that her husband did not know she was going to make a speech, and she did not know what he would say when he heard that she had succeeded in making an address in English.

In her address Mrs. Paderewski said there are few children under 13 years of age in Poland, with the exception of those in Warsaw. The others, she said, have perished from hunger and exposure. This has been an unusually severe winter in Poland, she added, and she believed that unless much help comes speedily there will no longer be a Polish people.

During the day Mrs. Paderewski sold dolls in the lobby of the Jefferson Hotel for the benefit of Polish artists and their families, stranded in Paris. Paderewski himself remained asleep in a private car sidetracked at the Vandeventer Station of the Wabash Railroad. His secretary announced that the pianist invariably sleeps until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon when he is to give a concert in the evening. He will appear at the Odeon tonight.

The dolls sold by Mme. Paderewski were designed and dressed by Polish artists who have been deprived by the war of their regular means of making a livelihood. Prices ranged from 25 to 25 and Mme. Paderewski said that she hoped to dispose of 500 during her stay in St. Louis today and tomorrow.

"I do not know just how much I have made by selling dolls," she said to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "I do not trouble about books. I know that since last October I have been enabled, by the sale of dolls, to support my family who are in Paris without any means of earning a livelihood. The biggest sale for one day was in Philadelphia."

"I have not been in Poland since the war. We have been in Switzerland, and were there at the outbreak of hostilities. Within a few days 40 Polish refugees reached our house and we had a hard time caring for them. Mr. Paderewski had less than $500 in cash and he found it impossible to procure any money from the banks where he had deposits. There are more than thirty refugees living at present upon the estate in Switzerland."

"For more than one year after the outbreak of the war, Mr. Paderewski devoted all his time to relief work for the homeless Poles. He found it necessary to resume his concert so that he might continue with the relief work. About one concert in every three is entirely for the benefit of the relief work. The largest of these charity concerts have been given in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago."

"So many appeals were being made for aid that I realized something unusual must be done to care for these particularly helpless families. I found one artist dressing a doll for his little girl. The idea came to me that if the artists would provide dolls, possibly I might be able to sell them."

A piano tuner accompanied Paderewski and four piano artists constantly in service, being shipped ahead of the artist so that they will have been at least two days in the hall or theater where he is to play, before his arrival.

V. Hopkinson Smith left $27,157. NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—V. Hopkinson Smith, author and artist, left $27,157 when he died last April, the official appraisal of his estate shows. It goes to his widow.

TIED WORKING MEN
A Local Druggist Suggests a Remedy for Overworked, Run-down Men.

The following letter from Manager Hodges recounts the experience and condition of many St. Louis men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y. "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beer and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable weight."

Samuel Hodges, 501 Stone Avenue. The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the three oldest and most famous tonics, viz., the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptonate of iron and beef peptonate.

We ask every run-down, overworked man in St. Louis to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodges.

Vinol is sold in St. Louis by the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and by all other drug stores in St. Louis that display the Vinol Agency sign.—ADV.

"For more than one year after the outbreak of the war, Mr. Paderewski devoted all his time to relief work for the homeless Poles. He found it necessary to resume his concert so that he might continue with the relief work. About one concert in every three is entirely for the benefit of the relief work. The largest of these charity concerts have been given in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago."

"So many appeals were being made for aid that I realized something unusual must be done to care for these particularly helpless families. I found one artist dressing a doll for his little girl. The idea came to me that if the artists would provide dolls, possibly I might be able to sell them."

A piano tuner accompanied Paderewski and four piano artists constantly in service, being shipped ahead of the artist so that they will have been at least two days in the hall or theater where he is to play, before his arrival.

V. Hopkinson Smith left $27,157. NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—V. Hopkinson Smith, author and artist, left $27,157 when he died last April, the official appraisal of his estate shows. It goes to his widow.

TIED WORKING MEN
A Local Druggist Suggests a Remedy for Overworked, Run-down Men.

The following letter from Manager Hodges recounts the experience and condition of many St. Louis men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y. "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beer and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable weight."

Samuel Hodges, 501 Stone Avenue. The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the three oldest and most famous tonics, viz., the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptonate of iron and beef peptonate.

We ask every run-down, overworked man in St. Louis to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodges.

Vinol is sold in St. Louis by the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and by all other drug stores in St. Louis that display the Vinol Agency sign.—ADV.

PRESIDENT TALKS WITH LEADERS ON NEW SHIP BILL

Details of Measure Administration Will Support Become Known for First Time.

WILL HURRY ACTION

Executive to Press Passage of Tariff Commission Act and Philippine Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—President Wilson summoned to the White House today leaders of the Senate and House to learn their attitude toward the shipping bill, a tariff commission and the Philippine bill. He indicated to them that in addition to the preparatory program and revenue bills, those three measures would be the principal ones backed by the administration.

Most of the leaders with whom President Wilson talked today opposed the shipping bill in the last Congress and he desired to know their position toward the new bill. He saw Majority Leader Kitchin of the House, Chairman Fitzgerald of the Appropriations Committee, Chairman Clarke of the Senate Commerce Committee, Chairman Simmons of the Senate Finance Committee and Senator Fletcher, who led the fight for the ship bill in the Senate at the last Congress.

Details of Shipping Bill.
As a result of the conferences today details of the shipping bill which will be supported by the administration became known for the first time. It does not include the feature of the old bill providing for continued operation of ships by the Government. Instead it provides that the Government shall purchase or build ships and then lease or sell them to corporations or private individuals. Only in case one offers to lease or buy the ships does the bill allow the Government to operate them. The Government could buy bare ships at a reasonable price for naval auxiliaries in time of war. A bond issue of $50,000,000 for the purchase or construction of ships would be provided by the bill which also includes a shipping board to control shipping rates.

Senator Clarke led the filibuster which finally prevented the passage of the measure last year and after his talk with the President today it was understood he objected to some features of the new bill. Kitchin said that his principal objections had been removed by changes from the former bill and he might support the new measure. Representative Fitzgerald said he would have to read the bill carefully before committing himself.

President to Push Bills.
Senator Simmons, who favors both a tariff commission and the new shipping bill, said the President was anxious to get action on both measures as soon as possible. He added that he would discuss the President's proposal for a tariff commission with the Finance Committee immediately.

It was indicated at the White House today that the President will not push any suggestions for revenue legislation until after the appropriation bills and the other measures he is advocating are disposed of.

Senator Simmons told the President that industrial and commercial changes

It leaves the way open for the Government to operate merchant ships in case vessels to be acquired could not be leased to private corporations satisfactorily.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see with virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the treacherous day, indigestion, waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter point of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. Three Leap to Deaths While the Others Succumb to Suffocation.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 26.—Six persons last night lost their lives today in a fire which destroyed the interior of the five-story Talbot-Walker Building at Jackson street and First avenue south. A large quantity of hemp salvaged from an incendiary fire last fall on a steamship pier stacked with war munitions was being dried in the building. Officials said there was no trace of incendiary and that the building was considered a heavy risk because of the hemp drying.

Three of six of the dead lost their lives in leaping from four-story windows. Three others were suffocated. All were men. Several others who jumped from windows were caught in blankets.

A large heating stove was in operation in the floor and it is believed hemp ignited from one of the stoves.

BRITAIN MAKES AD INTERIM REPLY ON U. S. MAIL CASE

Tells Ambassador Formal Answer to Seizure Protests
Will Come Later.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—The Foreign Office handed to the American embassy today an ad interim reply to the American protest against detention of mails. The states that, a formal answer to the representations of the United States will be made as soon as the French Government has signified its approval of the attitude of Great Britain.

It is understood that the formal reply will defend the action of the British authorities by citing evidence that Germans have been abusing the privileges of first-class mails. The British Government will rely on the postal conventions adopted at The Hague for justification of its measures.

MRS. LESCHINSKY GETS A DIVORCE; HER THIRD DECREE

Declares "Count" Spent $35,000 of Her Money and Swore at Her.

Mrs. Irene Leschinsky of 431 West Fine boulevard obtained her third divorce in eight years yesterday afternoon when Judge Shields granted her a decree of legal separation from J. Leschinsky, self-styled "Count." The decree carries with it restoration of her maiden name, Sanford, and $100 a month alimony. Mrs. Leschinsky's first husband was Benjamin Leslie Behr, whom she divorced in 1908. She then married Baron Carl von Schrader, himself a divorced man. She divorced Von Schrader about three years ago and became the second wife of Leschinsky in Dec. 1914, about a month after he was divorced by Sonia M. Leschinsky of the Buckingham Hotel.

After living with her until May 22, 1915, Leschinsky instituted divorce proceedings against his second wife and she filed a cross bill. He failed to appear in court to prosecute the case and the trial was on the defendant's cross bill.

She testified that the "Count" spent about $35,000 of her money and refused to account for it.

"He told me he made $10,000 a year, but he never earned a cent while he lived with me," she declared. She said she treated him affectionately, as she was "crazy about him," and was eager to get along harmoniously. His manager was all right until she refused to supply him with more money and then he became sarcastic and adopted a sneering attitude toward her, she said. She asserted he would curse at her and denounce her and her relatives when she declined to ask her mother for money.

"I bought two automobiles," Mrs. Leschinsky testified that her husband had been taking her to the former wife automobile. She was purchased with her money, and she repaid it from Leschinsky's money when the separation. She said she bought two automobiles for him in the short time that they were married and he made the claim both belonged to him.

She took occasion to deny the charges in his petition that she was addicted to the use of liquor and to drugs. Her testimony on this subject was corroborated by Dr. E. W. Garson, who testified he had known Mrs. Leschinsky and the Sanford family for years, socially and professionally, and he never observed any indication of the use of drugs or liquor by the defendant.

She also denied Leschinsky's assertion that she had been taking her to the former wife automobile. She was purchased with her money, and she repaid it from Leschinsky's money when the separation. She said she bought two automobiles for him in the short time that they were married and he made the claim both belonged to him.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out.
The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithiawater drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—ADV.

INSTITUTIONS WILL SUFFER BY MAJOR'S ECONOMY ORDER

Missouri Will Not Pay Any Expenses Except Those Necessary for Actual Operations.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 26.—Gov.
Major, alarmed by the condition of the State's finances, yesterday afternoon sent to all State institutions a letter directing that the most careful economy be practiced, and that no expense be incurred except for the actual necessary running expenses of the institutions. It is announced that the State Auditor would not honor drafts on the treasury for $4,773.75 appropriated by the last Legislature.

The Governor's letter resulted from an overappropriation of the State's revenue of that amount by the 1915 Legislature.

At the beginning of the present year
the general revenue fund of the State from which such appropriations must be paid, contained only $173,812.53. Last year the State paid out more than it received, reducing the balance in the treasury to a dangerously low point.

Receipts Got Heavier.

This morning the general revenue fund contained $610,854.65, the receipts during the month having been heavy because of taxes received from St.
Louis. Auditor Gordon estimated that by July 1 additional revenue to the amount of $1,750,000 will have been received.

Of this amount the treasurer will be required by law to pay over to the school fund, $1,600,000, which will leave less than $500,000 for all other purposes of the State government.

Nearly every educational, penal and eleemosynary institution in the State will be seriously handicapped by the cut in its appropriations, and will have to forego improvements which the last Legislature considered necessary.

The interstate reformatory, which was recommended by Gov. Major in his message to the Legislature as necessary in handling the penal problem of the State, will not be built. It was to have been in Booneville, where the Reform School for Boys is, and was to have served as a place of confinements for first offenders. An appropriation of $60-000 was made for the reformatory.

School Will Suffer.

The Warrensburg Normal School will be a sufferer. Its principal buildings were destroyed by fire a year ago. The Legislature appropriated $300,000 to rebuild them. Of this amount $17-972.85 has been paid out and bills for $17,545.98 are in the State Auditor's office and will be paid, the Auditor announced.
The school will not be able to get the remainder and the building cannot be finished.

The School for Feeble Minded and Epileptics at Warrensburg is to erect new buildings for which $100,000 was appropriated. This institution is overcrowded and the superintendent recently announced that there were 1000 persons in the State, who ought to be admitted and for whom application has been made, but who cannot be admitted because of lack of room.

The Legislature made appropriations from the general revenue fund of $18-673.75, although it was informed by the Auditor that the expected revenue for the fund would be only $11,500,000. In addition to making the overappropriations
the Legislature created many new jobs, and the cost of administering nearly all
State departments has increased.

Lack of Assessment.

It is admitted here by State officials that much of the blame for the condition of the treasury rests with the failure of officials to properly enforce the assessment, and tax collection laws of the State. The law requires that property in Missouri shall be assessed at its true value. It is common knowledge that this is not done. In St. Louis property is assessed at approximately 65 per cent of its value. In the counties of the State the rate of assessment is in many counties as low as 15 or 20 per cent of the value.

The Governor, in his letter, blamed the Legislature for its large appropriations, and also said that the legislature had placed added burdens on the State of $200,000 without providing additional sources of revenue. The new burdens, he stated, were pensions to Confederate soldiers, amounting to $200,000, and the appropriation for the Warrensburg Normal School.

He also said the abolishing of convict labor in the penitentiary had caused a reduction in the receipts of that institution of $200,000, and that the increase of "dry" territory in the State had caused a reduction of $300,000 in the receipts of the Beer Inspection Department.

Governor Sounds Warning.

In his warning to those in charge of State institutions, the Governor said:
"You are hereby directed not to create any indebtedness whatever for anything save and except for the amounts appropriated for the actual support of your institution, or department and for salaries. In this way your institution and every department can and will be maintained at its present high standard. Indebtedness for any other purpose will not be recognized by the State, nor the accounts audited or paid."

"I have this day instructed the Auditor not to audit any account, nor issue a warrant for any indebtedness hereafter which is a charge against the general revenue fund, save and except the appropriations for the actual support of institutions and departments, and for the salaries to carry on the business of the various institutions and departments."

"You will, therefore, govern yourself accordingly, and not incur any indebtedness other than for the two purposes herein stated."

"The appropriations, as thus held up, will not exceed the revenues, and therefore will not be a single debt created by the State for the biennial period which will

BELGIAN MINISTER'S HOME IN BRUSSELS IS SEARCHED

German Officials Believed to Have Been Seeking Documents of International Character But None Was Found.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—Emile Vandervelde, Minister without portfolio for the Belgian Government, received news today that his home at Ixelles, one of the suburbs of Brussels, had been searched by the German military authorities. All the locks were burst open, including those on jewel boxes belonging to Mme. Vandervelde, the contents of which, however, were left untouched. It is supposed, a dispatch to the Petit Journal says, that the Germans were looking for documents of an international character, but they found nothing.

The Belgian newspaper, Metropole, at Havre, announces that Camille Huysmans, secretary of the International Socialist Bureau, of which Vandervelde is president, was arrested at the frontier on the way back from Brussels. It adds that the search of Vandervelde's house at Ixelles is supposed to have been in connection with the arrest.

Vandervelde is said to have opposed the suggestion made recently at The Hague by representatives of other countries that the International Socialist Bureau help bring about peace.

TWO COMMITTEES JOIN FORCES FOR JEWISH RELIEF

Mass Meeting Will Be Held Sunday Evening to Forward Effort to Raise $75,000.

The St. Louis branch of the American Jewish Relief Committee has joined forces with the Woman's Relief Committee in their effort to raise $75,000 for the benefit of the Jewish people who are suffering in the European war zone.

A mass meeting has been called for Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, at Temp Israel, King's highway and Washington avenue. The committee in charge of the meeting is composed of Aaron Waldheim, M. E. Green, Aaron Fuller and Louis P. Aloe.

The speakers to tell of the suffering of the Jewish people in the war zone will be Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle, Dr. W. C. Bittling, Dr. Lewis Harrison and Frederick W. Lehmann.

The public is responding generously to the first appeal that the Jewish Relief Committee has made to the general public in the name of the Jewish people. The contributions received were one for $24.00, sent by the First Methodist Sunday School of Corinth, Miss.

The Woman's Relief Committee, of which Mrs. Waldheim is chairman, is conducting a personal visit campaign to secure pledges of monthly contributions until the war ends, or until the urgent need of relief shall have passed.

The relief work is conducted economically and with dispatch, reaching the immediate sufferer through community committees whose work is looking after helpless women and children.

Tomorrow is the day set apart by President Wilson by proclamation as National Collection day for the benefit of the Jewish sufferers from the war. Collections will be taken in every part of the United States. All contributions made in St. Louis should be sent to Mrs. Waldheim at 4222 Lindell boulevard.

That St. Louis' response to the preliminary meeting held last Sunday was appreciated by the National Jewish Relief Association was evidenced by the following telegram received by Rabbi Leon Harrison.

"I am delighted with splendid and generous contribution to Jewish relief fund from your St. Louis preliminary meeting. Expect magnificent results from liberal and public spirited community of St. Louis, both Jewish and Christian, for these poor perishing people."

SOCIETY

CARDS have been sent to a number of representative women in St. Louis inviting them to become members of the St. Louis branch of the American Ambulance in Paris.

Mrs. George A. Castleman is the chairman and Mrs. Stanley Stoner the secretary of the committee here, and a meeting will be held at Mrs. Castleman's residence, 3883 Lindell boulevard, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Dr. Nathan Allison and Dr. Malvern J. Cloggett, who have been serving with the ambulance corps, are interested in the organization here and will show some of their pictures.

There are branches of the Ambulance Commission in many of the big cities in America, whose object is to support wards, furnish ambulances and supplies for the wounded.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Orthwein of 15 Portland place, have gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for a month's stay and are at the Arlington.

Mrs. William Dixon of the Hamilton Hotel has returned from New York and from Austin, Tex. In the latter place, which is her former home, she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Kalin.

Miss Corinne Nugent, daughter of Mrs. Charles W. Nugent of 5541 Chamberlain avenue, will entertain with two tables of bridge Wednesday afternoon. Miss Nugent's engagement to Dr. Witt Merriam of Detroit was announced Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Crombie S. Chesbro of 9041 Waterman avenue will depart for Alexandria, La., next Wednesday to spend several weeks.

Frederick C. Lake Jr. of 4280 Westminster place will depart for New York the last of this week to visit Mr. Lake's grandmother, Mrs. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Spencer of Kenwood Springs will spend the last of the season in Alexandria, La. They will depart for there Feb. 2.

TWO COMMITTEES JOIN FORCES FOR JEWISH RELIEF

Mass Meeting Will Be Held Sunday Evening to Forward Effort to Raise $75,000.

The St. Louis branch of the American Jewish Relief Committee has joined forces with the Woman's Relief Committee in their effort to raise $75,000 for the benefit of the Jewish people who are suffering in the European war zone.

A mass meeting has been called for Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, at Temp Israel, King's highway and Washington avenue. The committee in charge of the meeting is composed of Aaron Waldheim, M. E. Green, Aaron Fuller and Louis P. Aloe.

The speakers to tell of the suffering of the Jewish people in the war zone will be Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle, Dr. W. C. Bittling, Dr. Lewis Harrison and Frederick W. Lehmann.

The public is responding generously to the first appeal that the Jewish Relief Committee has made to the general public in the name of the Jewish people. The contributions received were one for $24.00, sent by the First Methodist Sunday School of Corinth, Miss.

The Woman's Relief Committee, of which Mrs. Waldheim is chairman, is conducting a personal visit campaign to secure pledges of monthly contributions until the war ends, or until the urgent need of relief shall have passed.

The relief work is conducted economically and with dispatch, reaching the immediate sufferer through community committees whose work is looking after helpless women and children.

Tomorrow is the day set apart by President Wilson by proclamation as National Collection day for the benefit of the Jewish sufferers from the war. Collections will be taken in every part of the United States. All contributions made in St. Louis should be sent to Mrs. Waldheim at 4222 Lindell boulevard.

CONSCRIPTION BILL GETS SECOND READING IN LORDS

No Discussion Shown by Debate Over Measure Before Upper House of Parliament.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The House of Lords, without division, passed the second reading of the military service bill yesterday afternoon.

The Marquis of Lansdowne, Minister without portfolio, spoke strongly of the necessity of enacting the measure.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, in the course of the debate, bestowed a benediction on the measure, saying he regarded it as a plain, straightforward, vigorous effort to meet a situation extraordinarily difficult.

Earl Derby, Director of Recruiting, said he was convinced that the bill would not make the slightest difference in the industrial crisis many had predicted. Many believed it could be so worked that most could be brought into the army as required and as industry could spare them.

Parents Should Know of this Splendid Remedy

Simple Laxative Compound Helps to Correct Constipation in Children.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parent to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used, as these agents afford only temporary relief, while their violent action shocks the entire system.

Mrs. Eva P. Gaff, 517 10th St., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy, because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opium or narcotic drugs of any kind, and is an ideal remedy for children because of its mild action and positive effect. Its use tends to strengthen the impaired bowels and restore normal regularity.

It is important that parents should know of a dependable remedy with no unpleasant after effects, griping or strain. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin costs only fifty cents a bottle and can be procured at any drug store. To obtain a trial bottle, free of charge, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ill, from nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, backaches, hot flashes, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered from these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

WATCH OUT FOR BACKACHE

Swollen Ankles or Feet, Puffy Eyes, Itchy Throat, Chalky Complexion.

Are Usually Caused by Bad Kidneys.

You don't want to get scared into a panic of fear, but you do want to get busy at the very first sign of irregularity of kidneys or bladder so you can prevent its becoming serious. For there comes a time in neglected kidney trouble when it has developed into an incurable disease, such as Diabetes or Bright's Disease.

The kidneys are such delicate organs that indiscretions in eating or drinking, derangements of the stomach or bowels, habits of life or the later after-effects of even such childhood illnesses as Scarlet Fever, etc., have thrown too heavy a burden on the kidneys or weakened them.

Pay close attention to the symptoms given above—do something for them or any one of them. Drink plenty of pure water, keep the bowels regular and take from one to two of the ready-put-up prescription known as Salko Kidney and Backache Pills three or four times a day after meals. This treatment is based on the Health-Safety-First principle of an ounce of prevention being worth a pound of cure, and is recommended and endorsed not only by ourselves but by the organization of Salko druggists of this country, of which we are members and sole representatives in this city.

If Salko Kidney and Backache Pills do not relieve the symptoms your case is too serious for any home-treatment—go to a good doctor in such an event. But, except in such a dangerous attack, you will find that this treatment will give relief and prevent serious consequences.

It is the only store in this city where you can get Salko Kidney and Backache Pills or any of the Salko Safety-First remedies.

Ask at our store for free copy of Salko Safety First Manual of Health and Diet.

A Brooklyn Druggist Praises the Great Kidney Remedy

I have handled Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy for twenty years and have heard plenty of favorable reports concerning it from my customers. They are satisfied with the results obtained from its use. I know of many cases where Swamp-Root has cured Stone in the Bladder, Gall Stones, Gravel, Catarrh or Inflammation of Bladder, Liver trouble and Rheumatism. I have used it in my own family with good results; and I heartily endorse Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and believe it has good curative value.

Very truly yours,

CATTLE DEALERS ARE OPPOSED TO NEW QUARANTINE

East St. Louis, Stockmen Say Ban Permits Packers to Make Big Profits.

Cattle dealers at the National Stockyards in East St. Louis today were complaining against the partial quarantine of the stockyards there and declaring that no quarantine restrictions had been made at Indianapolis, although both yards had been receiving cattle from Christian County, Ill., where the foot-and-mouth disease were discovered last week.

The dealers pointed out that they had lost heavily by reason of a number of quarantines ordered in East St. Louis within the last year and that at the same time the packers had profited to the extent of the dealers' losses.

On the other hand it was pointed out by the packing interests that perhaps the Illinois State Veterinarian, who ordered the quarantine, was more diligent in inspections in behalf of the public health. The Federal authorities have taken no action.

There were about 400 stocker and feeder cattle in the yards Sunday when the quarantine was ordered without any warning. The price on these immediately dropped an average of $5 a head, so that packers profited about $2000.

Most dealers sold their stockers and feeders to the packers for beef, and stood their losses, but a few are holding them and hoping for an early lifting of the ban. It costs about $2 a head to feed cattle a week. If the quarantine last three weeks the speculators would lose $6 on each animal they held.

The quarantine has been ordered and re-ordered several times within the last year, and on every occasion the cattle dealers lost money and the packers were enabled to control the market. The price of beef fell 15 to 25 cents per 100 pounds as soon as the quarantine went into effect. The week yesterday were 2600 head, which is light, but today 4300 cattle came in. The packers are the only ones who can buy, and they make their own prices.

Mrs. Trullinger Is Well and Happy

Mrs. J. B. Trullinger of Norborne, Mo., was ill for months with derangement of the digestive tract. She suffered terrible pain and was unable to eat or sleep.

She took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy with results that most happily surprised her and astonished her physician.

Mrs. Trullinger lives on Route 1, out of Norborne, and leads an active country life. She writes: "I take great pleasure in telling you what Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has done for me. When I wrote you last March I was hardly able to get up at all. I endured awful suffering. I would get so bad I would become unconscious, and the nauseating spells I had would leave me as weak as if I had a long spell of sickness nearly as bad as typhoid."

"Words cannot express the appreciation I have for your medicine. I am now able to work all day long. All this summer and fall I have just fine, gaining in strength and flesh."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee. If not satisfactory money will be returned.—ADV.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength) and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Cleared nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—ADV.

HEIRESS MARRIED TO FORMER CHAUFFEUR OF GRANDFATHER

New York Girl Whose Wedding Months Ago Is Disclosed, Plans Related Honeymoon.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Miss Priscilla K. von B. Ebling, daughter of Mrs. Amanda Ebling of Weehawken, and heiress to $500,000, was secretly married, last November, to Fred Wolfert, former lieutenant in the German army, who met her while a chauffeur for her grandfather, it became known today.

The day following the wedding, in Gloucester, Mass., Lieut. Wolfert returned to this city, where he is connected with a tire company. His bride went to the home of her mother, where she is still known as Miss Ebling.

NEW YORK MEN START MYSTERIOUS BOOM FOR CLARK

Committee Begins Work of Advocating Speaker as a Presidential Candidate.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A presidential boom for Champ Clark, started here by the "Champ Clark Presidential Campaign Committee" of 135 Broadway, set politicians speculating yesterday. To a document which sets forth Clark's qualifications for the presidency are the several names of the officers of the committee, and of these all but one appear to be of German origin.

Friends of Speaker Clark declared that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President if President Wilson should seek a renomination. Speaker Clark has made no public utterance on the subject of the next presidential campaign since his speech of the last session, when he asserted that if President Wilson's administration were a success and he desired a renomination, no man could wrest it from him.

In the event of the failure of the administration, he added, the nomination would be worthless.

The speaker at that time made no reference to, and probably did not consider, the possibility that the administration might prove a success, while the President at the same time might wish to retire, in which event the Democratic nomination would be worth while to another Democrat.

The men whose names appear on the Clark boom are Julius N. Binder, chairman; Philip Levy, vice chairman; M. Crammes, secretary; Michael H. Tropaur, treasurer, and John Hodel Jr., J. Davidson and Max Kramer.

Binder is in the real estate business. The city directory gives Levy as a clerk. Crammes as a lawyer. Tropaur a clerk. Hodel as a cashier and many Davidsons and Kramers are listed that one could not be identified. None of these men could be reached yesterday.

WAITS ALL DAY FOR HIS LEG

Through Error Wooden Member Falls to Reach Man at City Hospital.
Benjamin Mathies, 67 years old, of 710 South Broadway, waited in the reception room of the city hospital from 9 o'clock yesterday morning until 8 o'clock last night for his son-in-law, William Lovingshal, to arrive with Mathies' wooden leg. Lovingshal, when he appeared with the leg, was directed by error to the hospital ward in which Mathies had been a patient. He was told Mathies had gone home, and he took the leg home.

When the error was discovered, last night, Mathies was put back to bed and Lovingshal notified to bring the leg a second time.

Mathies had gone to the hospital to have the stump of his leg treated, and, having no use for the wooden leg there, left it at home.

TWO AT CITY BUDGET HEARING

Dr. L. H. Crapp Suggests $350,000 for Relief Sewer.
The first public hearing on the city budget for the year commencing next April was attended by two persons yesterday afternoon, and the only suggestion made was that of Dr. L. H. Crapp, representing the Chouteau-Lindell Improvement Association, who urged an appropriation of $350,000 for a relief sewer in the vicinity of St. Louis and Vandeventer avenues.

Mayor Kiel and Comptroller Player, a majority of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, conducted the hearing. Secretary Baldwin, representing the Civic League, asked many questions about the administration's budget plan, but said he would submit any suggestions he might have at a subsequent hearing. The hearings will be conducted at 3 p. m. each Tuesday under further notice, in the office of Mayor Kiel.

BURNS CLUB HAS CELEBRATION

Meeting Held in Honor of the Poet's Birthday Anniversary.
The Burns Club of St. Louis celebrated the birthday of Robert Burns, the poet, at the Art Center last night by meeting in a room which is a replica of the poet's study in the Burns' cottage at Ayr. An original poem, "The Birth of Tam O' Shanter," describing how Burns composed his famous poem "O' Shanter" in one day, was read by Thomas Augustine Daly, poet and newspaper paragrapher, of Philadelphia.

The meeting was presided over by W. K. Bixby, president of the club. Informal addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Lee, F. W. Lehman, Robert Matlock, the Rev. Dr. W. C. Bitting, W. M. Reedy and President Bixby.

HEAVY PENAL EXACTED FROM INDOOR WORK

Pays the Price for A at the Sales Counter

We cannot all of a sudden get out of doors and women who work offices and the great stores often have to pay the price of the all-day grind. There comes in the sluggishness that is inactivity and the mark the indoors wear.

"I had catarrh for at last it became all right," said Mrs. M. E. Johnson, 7th and St. Charles. Mrs. Taylor is a proprietary medicine, failed to find relief, last. Tanlac was recommended by one of the girls. Do you know, I believe that work indoors are able to catarrh than on the outside, because membranes in the nasal passages become "I had constant cold and coughing, on account of mucus. I was up four or five times with choking sensation. I ever get a real sleep. "During the daytime, almost a constant coughing. In the morning, have dull headaches, eyes and then would be hussling in my ears. I was going to bed. I believe I was contracting a serious nasal catarrh. Tanlac has relieved the shocking and stopped. I sleep better, appetite and my general improvement."

Tanlac is being sold at the main store, son-Enderle-Paulay, 24 and St. Charles Sts. Tanlac man explains its daily. Tanlac may be at any of the other Johnson-Enderle-Paulay located at 8th and Pine, Lillian, Broadway and Harriet and Grand streets.

HEAVY PENALTY EXACTED FROM INDOOR WORKER

Pays the Price for All-Day Grind at the Sales Counter.

We cannot all of us take advantage of out-of-doors and so the men and women who work in the shops, offices and the great department stores often have to pay the penalty of the all-day grind at the work bench, the desk or the sales counter. There comes in many cases the sluggishness that is bred of physical inactivity and the ailments that mark the indoors worker for their own.

"I had catarrh for ten years and at last it became almost unbearable," said Mrs. M. E. Taylor, last evening, at the main store of the Johnson-Enderle-Pauley Drug Co., 7th and St. Charles Sts., St. Louis. Mrs. Taylor is a demonstrator at the Scruggs, Vandervoort, Barney Dry Goods Co., and lives at the Madison Hotel, St. Louis. Continuing Mrs. Taylor said: "I had no faith in proprietary medicine, but, having failed to find relief, I turned to it at last. Tanlac was recommended to me by one of the girls at the store. Do you know, I believe that people who work indoors are more susceptible to catarrh than those who are on the outside, because the mucous membranes in the nose and bronchial passages become more tender."

"I had constant fits of choking and coughing, on account of the secretions of mucus. I would wake up four or five times every night with choking sensations. Rarely did I ever get a real night's rest. During the daytime I would have almost a constant desire to clear my throat. In the mornings I would have dull headaches between my eyes and then would come ringing and buzzing in my ears. I was often afraid I was going to lose my hearing. I believe I was in danger of contracting a serious case of catarrhal asthma."

"Tanlac has relieved my catarrh. The choking and wheezing have stopped. I sleep better, have a good appetite and my general health has improved."

Tanlac is being specially introduced at the main store of the Johnson-Enderle-Pauley Drug Co., 7th and St. Charles Sts. There the Tanlac man explains its use to scores daily. Tanlac may also be obtained at any of the other stores of the Johnson-Enderle-Pauley Drug Co., located at 8th and Pine, Bernays and Lillian, Broadway and Market, Grand and Hebert and Grand and Olive streets.

The TANLAC representative will be at the Grand and Olive street, Johnson-Enderle-Pauley Drug Co., evenings 7 to 10.—ADVERTISEMENT.

SEES U. S. LEADING WORLD IN FINANCE WHEN WAR IS OVER

Former Senator Burton Says Borrowers Will Have to Turn From Europe to America.

SPEAKS TO BUSINESS MEN

He Attempts to Forecast What Economic Conditions Will Be When Peace Comes.

A more commanding position for the United States in the world's business after the European war was forecast by former United States Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio in an address before the members' conference of the Business Men's League at the Mercantile Club today. Senator Burton also predicted continued prosperity in this country throughout the period of the war, and indicated that he believed the United States would assume financial leadership of the world after the war, because the countries which have heretofore relied upon Europe for their loans will have to come to us.

Senator Burton recalled the serious business depression before the outbreak of the war, followed by derangement of exchanges and general demoralization of trade afterward. Then came the demand for food supplies, ordnance and munitions that brought an abounding prosperity to this country. This prosperity, he said, was somewhat unequal in different branches of endeavor, and attended by a great deal of speculation and uncertainty. Exports not responsive to war requirements have shown a decided decrease, he said.

Undertakes to Look Into Future. The speech of the former Ohio Senator was an effort to look into the future and determine what effect the war is going to have upon industrial conditions. The question of deepest concern, he said, is what is going to happen after the war. The magnitude and destructiveness of the conflict has been so great that no one can accurately measure the outcome, he said, and the end is not in sight.

"The loss of wealth and productive power in the first year of the war has been estimated at $4,000,000,000, more than a tenth of the aggregate wealth of the contending nations," Senator Burton said. "Millions upon millions of men have been killed or maimed. Under such circumstances some consequences can be foretold with approximate certainty. By reason of economic exhaustion the nations engaged will be so much poorer that they must buy less and sell a far larger proportion of what they produce. The total international trade of the world will, no doubt, be diminished. The burden of increased taxation will impose a serious handicap upon all undertakings. It will require a long time to allay the repulsion between the contending nations, and this will seriously disturb relations between them."

"There are certain results which must be secured by the United States if it does not suffer very material business disaster after the war.

First, a new effort must be made to secure markets in outlying portions of the earth, such as Central and South America, where now our trade, though very considerable, is capable of very large expansion. Heretofore our trade has been with countries highly developed, such as those of Europe, or those nearby, such as Canada and Cuba. We have neglected that trade, which cannot be rapidly acquired.

Second, a general policy in the control of business which shall give more attention to the punishment of fraud, dishonesty and oppression, and less to penalties upon violations of academic theories. As an illustration, it is very desirable that combinations be permitted among companies and individuals in seeking foreign trade. Our foreign competitors have not only allowed, but fostered this provision for the foreign trade.

Third, a greater degree of co-operation at home. This involves a better understanding between the various elements in our industrial life, which should be harmonious but which have been more or less antagonistic, such as the employer and employee; a better realization of what nations owe to each other and their mutual rights are as much to be desired as anything. There is occasion for congratulation in that our banking systems promise to weather any storm which may arise, and it is highly desirable that banks be located in foreign countries and every effort be made to improve the means of communication."

He is advertising a local manufactured preparation. Twelfth street from Locust to St. Charles was crowded with spectators.

The Jarr Family

Written for the Post-Dispatch
By Roy L. McCordell.

Mr. Berry, With Mr. Jarr Beside Him, Puts the Dapple Grays Through Every Test.

AND now, after a digestion, let us go back, please, to Mr. Jarr. Mr. Berry and Mr. Rafferty, and the dicker for the team of dapple grays. Mr. Berry, the undertaker, was, you remember, trying out Rafferty's horses with his own professional equipment.

"If any of my friends could see me only now!" moaned Mr. Jarr, who sat beside him.

He looked at Mr. Berry with a strong inclination to give a horrible yell and knock that same individual from the box seat of the hearse beside him. Had Mr. Berry ventured one word to him at this moment Mr. Jarr would have done it. But Mr. Berry chuckled to the dapple grays and guided them through the teaming streets, well pleased at the smart yet dignified action of the span.

"Well, are you satisfied?" asked Mr. Jarr finally. "The horses, while sufficiently spirited for your business, do not seem to be nervous. They have not shied at automobiles, trolley cars or children whooping and rushing across the street under their noses. I guess you take them from Rafferty, eh? What?"

"The test has hardly begun," replied Mr. Berry. "Now for temptation such as fured Clarence, my very suspicious horse, who has been led by his own dispositions into the movies!" added Mr. Berry, and he guided the horses drawing the hearse close to the curb by the side door of a saloon.

But the dapple grays evidently thought they were hitched to a water wagon rather than a hearse, or it may have been that they were conscientious horses of the highest probity who had promised their mothers never to drink. Perhaps, too, they had heard of the awful fall from grace of Clarence—lost to the respectable profession of hauling a hearse and gone into moving pictures through seduction to drink in any case, the dapple grays passed on by the side of the saloon and half a dozen other saloons, out giving them a glance, as alone halting or faltering.

Mr. Jarr felt very thirsty. But who was he that he should set a bad example to a pair of dapple grays going into the very respectable undertaking profession?

"Now, see, they are all right," said Mr. Berry finally. "Let us drive back to Rafferty's stable and close the deal." "I am not half through with the test yet," replied Mr. Berry. "I remember that when Clarence first was added to drink he would halt only at roadhouses, as saloons in the city did not appeal to him. At first he only cared to litter at roadhouses on his way back from internments. Then a beer advertisement on a signboard would cause him to halt, even when heading the cortege. Finally, he became lost to even the shadow of respectable pretense and this is interesting information—and more particularly when it is remembered that prices of materials are increasing.

This special assortment gives you ample selection from warm, fashionable coats, so late in style that they will be useful to begin next Winter with.

They include exceptionally desirable fur fabrics, boucles, chinchillas, mixtures and corduroys, in the long, enveloping styles and medium lengths.

At from $10 to $15 they were unusual intrinsic values aside from the lateness, smartness and authenticity of the models. At $5 they are the extreme of clearance values.

at last he balked when passing a brewery and held up the cortege in a most embarrassing manner and finally had to be removed from the scene in a horse ambulance. Then it was I knew that Clarence and I had come to the turning of the ways. I sold him to a milkman. At first, the unconventional hour of coming home appealed to Clarence. This wearing off, he would only deliver milk at cafes. His downfall was rapid, and, as I have said, Clarence is now in the movies.

Mr. Jarr could only rejoice that no one of his large and varied acquaintances had as yet behind him riding around on a hearse beside an undertaker, who looked his part. That is, Mr. Jarr had seen no one he knew—but so when Mr. Berry remarked that they would drive to the outskirts of the city to see if the dapple grays had any inclination to stop at roadhouses.

Spitful.

RAGGED ROGERS: De lady in de next house give me a piece of homemade cake. Won't you give me something, too?

Mr. Spitful: Certainly, I'll get you a pepsin tablet.

Economic Choice

Of course, I want my daughter to have some kind of artistic education. I think I'll let her study singing.

At a Country Post Office.

MORNING, John.

"Mornin', Mister Lessor."

"How be you?"

"Sprey, thank y'. Has Tom Harkness bin in this mornin'?"

"Yep."

"Gitt any mail?"

"Yep."

"What kind?"

"Postal."

"What did it say?"—Buffalo News.

Sawdust.

I WONDER what they feed dollies on?" asked one little girl.

"I know," said the other little girl, "house when my Lillian Russell fell downstairs and broke her head off, her tummy was all stuffed full of breakfast food."

Honey Spot.

DON'T you think I run a nice, home-like little hotel?" asked the proud landlord.

"Indeed I do," said Jiggers. "It's cold and drafty, and the service is awful, and as for your cook—well, really, Mr. Dauphones, when I ate that fierce breakfast this morning I actually thought I was home for a minute."

Feared the Truth.

GEORGE, said the wife to her generally unappreciative husband, "how do you like my new hat?"

"Well, my dear," said George, with great candor, "to tell you the truth—"

"Stop right there, George! If you're going to talk that way about it I don't want to know."

Might Give It a Toot.

WE are now," said the passenger in the dripping oleikins, "about to round Cape Horn. Don't you want to come out and see it?"

"I should say not," answered the passenger with the novel. "You made me go and look at Sandy Hook and it wasn't a hook at all. You can't fool me a second time."

Evidently He Had.

DID you say these peas were from your own garden?" asked the summer boarder.

"Yes, sires," replied the farmer.

"Is it necessary to shoot them when you pick them?" inquired the boarder, removing a piece of solder from between his teeth.

Almost at That.

P.A., said little Jimmie, "I was very near getting to the head of my class today."

"How was that, Jimmie?"

"Why, a big word came all the way down to me, and if I could only have spelt it I should have gone clear up."

Too Much Joy for Him

THE deacons and other officers of a church had met to discuss the best method of getting rid of a pastor who had worn out his usefulness. After various methods had been suggested without any of them seeming feasible, one brother, who was a good deal of a wit, said:

"I tell you what to do. Let's pay him all of his salary in arrears and raise him to a thousand a year and he will drop dead."

Qualified.

I SAY, Hodge, why do you always put 'dictated' on your letters? You don't keep a stenographer."

"No; but, to tell the truth, old chap, my spelling's exceedingly rocky."—Washington Post.

Suspicious.

SAMBO: Ah loves yo' Mandy, and Ah just come to see yo' fo' a fix up de wedding.

Mandy: What's de-mattah? Has yo' lost yo' job?

PROSPERITY has ruined many a man," declared the moraliser.

"Well," rejoined the demoraliser, "if I was going to be ruined at all I'd prefer prosperity to do it."

MISTRESS—"I shall be lonely, & get, if you leave me."

Bridget—"Don't you worry, mum, I not go until ye have a houseful of company."

"The doctor was a man," she added.

"Did you ever see a doctor?"

"No, sir; I would my husband. I and cared for me deep down in his matter whom he was."
